

BLUFF POINT

The South, 1954. An off-duty police officer is driving the family babysitter home. This short journey will change both of their lives forever.

Bluff Point is a six minute thriller that explores the dark heart of desire and takes us on a headlong race to the furthest reaches of human frailty and human madness. A perfectly crafted miniature, Bluff Point is dazzling, intense and totally unforgettable.

KIERON BARRY, WRITER

Born in Shakespeare's Stratford-upon-Avon, award-winning British writer Kieron Barry has seen ten of his plays produced in London or New York. Hailed by the London Evening Standard as 'one of the cleverest things around' when his first play premiered in 1999, Kieron has since seen his work described by Britain's biggest-selling liberal newspaper The Guardian as 'witty and wise' and by Time Out London as 'ambitious drama, filled with brilliant dialogue'. A collection of his plays has recently been published.

SCOTT W LEE, DIRECTOR

Scott has been producing, directing and editing film and video for almost ten years. He has worked on a variety of projects such as Dawson's Creek and Bon Jovi's live concerts. His short films and music videos have screened in festivals around the country and have won numerous awards including Best Music Video (Secret City Film Festival) and inclusion in the 2008 Best of Cable screening at Promax/BDA.

TONY CORAPI, DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Tony Corapi has worked in film and video production since 1978, upon graduation from New York University. Tony worked with cinematographer Roger Deakins on the films Sid & Nancy, The Shawshank Redemption, Fargo, and Courage Under Fire. Tony also worked with long time friend and fellow NYU alumnus Chris Columbus on the films Mrs. Doubtfire and Nine Months.

JOEL MCKINNON MILLER, LEAD ACTOR

A mainstay of both prime-time network television drama and big-budget Hollywood films, Joel McKinnon Miller is one of America's best-loved character actors. Currently shooting his third season of HBO's Big Love, Joel has also appeared in Deadwood, Nip/Tuck, Boston Legal, Desperate Housewives, CSI, Everybody Loves Raymond, Six Feet Under and Curb Your Enthusiasm.

His film work includes The Truman Show, Men In Black II, Galaxy Quest, Just Like Heaven, Rush Hour 2 and After the Sunset.

SPONSORSHIP RECOGNITION

Bluff Point's producers are seeking partners to participate in this unique project. Sponsors will be recognized by way of an onscreen credit commensurate with the level of contribution.
